

Every Day Is Ladies' Day with Me

Text by Henry Blossom (1866-1919) [Am]

Set by Victor Herbert (1859-1924) [Am]

Verse 1

I      should      like,      without      undue      reiteration      of      the      ego,
[a:ɪ      ʃʊd      la:ɪk      wɪð.'a:ʊt      ,ʌn.'dʒu      ɹi:ɪ.tə.'je:ɪ.ʃən      ʌv      ðʌ      'i:go:ʊ]

To      explain      how      very      hard      I      find [tu      ɪ(ɛ)ks.'ple:ɪn      ha:ʊ      'veɹ.i      hɑəd      a:ɪ      fa:ɪnd]

it is to make my pay go

'Round among my vulgar creditors, I'm fearfully in debt,

For I always have afforded anything that I could get!

But I must say I've enjoyed the best of what there is in life;

been lucky in my love affairs, I've never had a wife!

I can summon little int'rest in the dry affairs of state,

And the bus'nessmen who call on me are coldly left to wait!

Chorus

For every day is ladies' day with me,

I'm quite at their disposal all the while!

And my pleasure it is double

if they come to me for trouble,

For I always find a way to make them smile,

the little darlings!

I've no doubt I should have married long ago!

It's the proper thing to do, you'll all agree!

But I never could find any fun

in wasting all my time on one,

So ev'ry day is ladies' day with me!...
