

Grandma

Text by Leonard Feeney (1897-1978) [Am]

Set by Theodore Ward Chanler (1902-1961) [Am]

Grandma is old
[ˈɡrænd.mə ɪz oːld]

And she does not like the cold;
[ænd ʃi dʌz nɒt laɪk ðə koːld]

She prefers the spring and summer to the fall;
And the winter she prefers the least of all.

Grandma's hair
Is white,
And she loves to sit
In her rocking chair,
And knit
And talk
And almost rock,
And see you dimly with her poor eyesight.

Grandma says
That God
Is good,
But that His ways
Are odd
And cannot be always Understood.

But after she has taken a cookie from the shelf,
And given it to you
And smiled...

The entire text to this title with the complete
IPA transcription is available for download.

Thank you!

